

NAMBR OFFICIAL CLASSES

Novice 'A' is for dogs which have not earned the title of CD (Companion Dog) in any country. A dog that has earned a comparable title in any country is not eligible for entry in this class but may be entered in the Novice 'B' class. No trainer, person who assists in an obedience training class or any person who has previously exhibited a dog through its UD (Utility Dog) title in Canada or elsewhere shall be allowed to compete in this class but may be entered in the Novice B class. One dog only may be entered in this class by any one exhibitor, who must handle the dog in all exercises. Every dog in the class must be handled by the owner or a member of his/her immediate family.

Novice 'B' is for dogs which have not earned the title of NAMBR CD. A dog which has earned the title of CD or comparable title in any country must compete in the Novice 'B' class. Dogs in this class may be handled by the owner or any other person. A person may enter more than one dog in this class. The same handler who handled each dog in the first 4 exercises must handle each dog in the sit and down exercises, except where a handler has handled more than one dog in the first 4 exercises; there must be an additional handler for the Group exercise. No dog may be entered in more than one Novice class at any one trial.

Open 'A' is for all dogs which have earned the title of NAMBR CD but have not earned the title of CDX (Companion Dog Excellent) in any country. A dog that has earned a comparable title in any country must enter the Open 'B' Class. No trainer or any person who has previously exhibited a dog through its UD title in Canada or elsewhere is allowed to compete in this class but may enter in the Open 'B' class. One dog may be entered in this class by any one exhibitor, who must handle the dog in all the exercises. Every dog in the class must be handled by the owner or a member of his immediate family. No dog may enter both Open 'A' and Open 'B' at the same trial

Open 'B' is for dogs which have earned their NAMBR CD. A dog which has earned the title of CDX or comparable title in any country must compete in the Open 'B' class. Dogs in this class may be handled by the owner or any other person. Dogs eligible for entry in the Utility class may also enter the Open 'B' class at the same trial.

Utility is for dogs which have earned the title of NAMBR CDX. Dogs entered in this class may be handled or exhibited by the owner or any other person. Dogs eligible for, and entered in this class, may also enter the Open 'B' class at the same trial.

NAMBR UNOFFICIAL CLASS

Veterans is for dogs that have earned the title of NAMBR CD and are 7 years old or older on the day of the trial.
